Royal Ambassadors

Royal Ambassadors is an organization for boys in grades 1–6.

An ambassador can be defined as a messenger or representative — someone who tells or reveals truth. Royal Ambassadors seek to share the truth that Jesus is the way, the truth and the life.

RA is designed to help boys in grades 1 through 6 come to faith in Christ as Savior while making missions an important part of their daily lives. They learn what it means to live a missional life-style while they participate in Bible studies, missions projects and engaging activities. They also have a lot of fun and build a faith-based brotherhood as they “travel” to various places around the world when they learn about the work of missionaries. Their experiences lead to a lifelong commitment to Christ, His mission and His church.

■ RA SAMPLE ACTIVITY (10–15 MINUTES)

Making Friends

■ SUPPLIES

- a page from RA World (See next page.)
- pencils
- large piece of butcher paper or newsprint
- drawing paper
- markers
- glue

1. Print and hand out “Friendship Investigation”. Read instructions together, and work the puzzle.
2. Discuss the qualities of a good friend.
3. Trace an outline of an RA on a large piece of butcher paper or newsprint. Talk about the qualities that make a good friend.
4. Say: Friendship is to love and help others, even if I must give up something.
5. Divide boys into five groups. Assign a body part to each group (mouth, hands, feet, ears, and eyes).
6. Say: Draw the body part you were assigned. Then, brainstorm together ways you can use that body part to show friendship and Jesus’ love to others. Write your ideas on the part you drew.
7. When the groups have completed their lists, have each group read its list aloud.
8. Lead groups to cut out the body parts and glue them to the body outline.
