

Engage your small group to dig deeper into Missions Mosaic magazine with the following questions and challenges.

Pick and choose the questions that work best for your group. If discussion grows around one or two questions, feel free to focus on the topics sparking deeper conversation. There is no right or wrong way to use this discussion guide. For further study and group activity ideas, check out Women on Mission Leader.

Bible Study

1. Think about a time when you had a job where you carried out your duties because you had to but your heart was not in it. What was your attitude like?
2. How might keeping a gratitude journal help you see your duties as an opportunity to serve God? What if you began to do your work for your employer “as if you were serving the Lord, not people” (Eph. 6:7)?
3. Have you ever found yourself serving in the ministry of the church but not because you wanted to? Maybe it was because no one else would do it. How could you affect a change of heart toward that service?

Prayer

1. In what ways might you be wasting your life on things that don’t matter in light of eternity?
2. How could you be more openhanded this week with the life God has entrusted you with?
3. What is one new way you can begin serving this week, small or big?

This Month’s Spotlight

1. When the Lord calls you to do something, how do you respond? Consider times you have obeyed immediately and times you have dragged your feet. What made the difference?
2. What does being a disciple of Christ mean to you? What should the life of a disciple look like?
3. In what ways can you open your home to minister to those around you for the sake of the gospel?
