Jorge realized God wanted him to do more than help people wash clothes and rebuild their houses. There was another reason God sent Jorge and Rebeca to Comerío. Color all the hurricane swirls with the letters X, Y, and Z. Read the remaining letters to find out the reason. Write the reason on the lines below the puzzle.

What was the reason?

______________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________

God wants you to do the same thing where you are!