

Because of current safety guidelines, you may need to adapt the summer 2021 quarterly event to be held virtually—or you may be considering ways to include homebound or other remote participants. Use these instructions in conjunction with the instructions in the article on pages 18–20 in Women on Mission Leader.

BEFORE THE EVENT

- Enlist a guest speaker just as you would for an in-person event. You could even use this as an opportunity to ask someone you wouldn't be able to host in person, like someone from another part of the state or country or a missionary from overseas.
- If you would still like to pack tote bags for the women, then consider dropping them off at their doors before the event.
- Promote the event through social media and the church calendar.

DURING THE EVENT

- For the attention-getter, read the survey to the women on Zoom, and instruct them to jot their answers down on a piece of paper.
- Go through the Bible study, hear the guest speaker, and ask the enlisted volunteers to share testimonies. Ask everyone to participate in the testimony activity by writing on the same notebook or paper used for the survey.
- You can still divide into groups to practice even if you aren't meeting in person. Visit this website to learn how use breakout rooms in Zoom: <https://support.zoom.us/hc/en-us/articles/206476093-Enabling-breakout-rooms>.
- Set a time for everyone to return to the main Zoom session from the breakout rooms.

AFTER THE EVENT

For those who feel comfortable visiting in person, ask them to plan a visit to someone's home to share or gather together with others to go. For those who don't, ask them to plan a time to share with a nonbelieving friend or family member over a video call.
