

2023 NATIONAL ACTEENS PANEL

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

A Note from National WMU®

The National Acteens® Panel is an elite group of young women who are interested in missions and impacting their world for Christ. Each year up to six young women are selected as National Acteens Panelists by national WMU®.

The young women selected as national panelists have exhibited a strong commitment to Christ and to missions through their involvement in Acteens, leadership responsibilities in their church and community, and dedication to their academic studies. The national panelists represent the finest young women from across the country.
