

Drawing Faithful Followers in Atlanta, Georgia

This month, children will learn about how God is using the artistic talent of Kerry and Twyla Jackson to share the gospel with creative people in Atlanta, Georgia.

Use this resource to reinforce what your child is learning every month in your children's missions group.

NOTES FROM YOUR CHILD'S LEADERS:

Bible Focus

This month, your child has been learning about how God made a day for rest. Play a game to reinforce the memory verse: "God blessed the seventh day and made it holy. He blessed it because on that day he rested from all the work he had done" (Genesis 2:3). On paper, draw seven squares in a line to represent seven days in a week. Write out the verse in the squares, putting a few words in each square. Practice saying the verse, covering each square with a sticky note one square at a time as children memorize more of the verse.

Ministry Focus

Kerry and Twyla Jackson work to reach the creative community in Atlanta, Georgia. They use live art presentations to share the gospel and lead Bible studies for artists of all kinds. Pray the Jacksons can point these creative people toward the Creator.

》》》 Sidewalk Chalk Talk

The Jacksons use art to talk to people about God. With your child, take sidewalk chalk to a place where people will be passing by in your neighborhood or a park. Using chalk, draw seven boxes, one for each day of the week. Use Genesis chapter 1 as a guide to draw the things God created on each day of the week in the boxes. As people stop to watch, talk to them about God and creation.

》》》 Worship with Us

Children have been learning how God created the seventh day and made it holy. Because Jesus rose from the dead on the first day of the week, Christians have set aside Sunday as the day to worship together. Encourage your child to invite a friend that does not go to church to attend worship with your family. You can invite their family as well.

》》》 Your Neighborhood Has Talent

Like the Jacksons, God has given you and your child gifts and talents. Whether it is singing, playing an instrument, dancing, painting, athletic ability, or something else, encourage them to use their talents to point others to Jesus. Consider planning a neighborhood talent show. Invite neighbors and use the opportunity to share about Jesus.
