

Engage your small group to dig deeper into the October 2023 issue of Missions Mosaic magazine with the following questions and challenges.

Pick and choose the questions that work best for your group. If discussion grows around one or two questions, feel free to focus on the topics sparking deeper conversation. There is no right or wrong way to use this discussion guide. For further study and group activity ideas, check out Women on Mission Leader.

Bible Study

1. The Cooperative Program is one of the best ways Southern Baptists all over the world partner together. How has your church been blessed by the Cooperative Program?
2. What are some ways you can imitate the early church and share what you have?

Prayer

1. If prayer is the “greatest tool to fight disunity,” why do you think we often treat prayer as a last resort, instead of praying about disunity first?
2. What are some ways you and your group can pray for your church leaders as they endeavor to safeguard the unity of your church?

This Month's Spotlight

1. Brennan Gibbs shared that when she was in college, a group of women who were in Women on Mission took her under their wings by allowing her to learn from them. How have you learned from other women, particularly through Women on Mission groups?
2. Throughout the article, Jack and Brennan share about the impact of friendship (relating to displaced refugees, the children at the playground, Jack's friend who plays soccer, etc.). How can you offer friendship to those who are new to your community, hurting from tragedy, or in need of hope in Christ? What can you do as a group?
