Play and Learn

Camping and Resort Communities

During November, Mission Friends will learn about Chaplain Robert Ruesch. He and his wife Barbara reach out to people who live in camping and resort communities. Chaplain Ruesch's home base is in Colorado, but he also travels to Florida, Texas, and Arizona to help other chaplains do their work.

Camping and resort community chaplains host potlucks, family movie nights, Christian concerts, Bible studies, and worship services. The chaplains get to know the people so they can tell them about Jesus.

Pretend to Go Camping!

- Let your child help spread a sheet over a table to make a tent or recreational vehicle (RV).
- Help your child make a pretend campfire with blocks, paper towel tubes, and crumpled orange and red paper.
- Dig out the toy foods and pretend to cook a campfire meal with your child.
- Use towels as pretend sleeping bags.
- Sit inside the tent or RV and read books by flashlight.

Pray for Mr. and Mrs. Ruesch and the other chaplains who live at campgrounds so they can meet people and tell them about Jesus.
